

Three More Deaths Announced Monday

The Cherokee County Health Department reports three additional deaths of county residents who had Covid-19 at the time of their passing. According to health officials one of the residents was a woman in her 60's while the other two, a man and woman, were both in their 90's.

The Cherokee County Health Department staff extends their heartfelt condolences to family members grieving during this time of loss.